“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Stein Family. Mr. Stein was truly a wonderful man - that will always be remembered as a kind, caring, loving person. He loved his wife, children, grandchildren and family. I know you all were his world. He was always a very sincere understanding man who understood what a person was going through no matter who you were or what your status in life was. He shared his many experiences with others and tried to make things better. When he heard of a problem you were going through he listened. Once you talked to him you felt better - there was always a smile in his voice and a sense of understanding.

He was and always will be a shining star in heaven. Please know he will always be with you and live in your hearts and the hearts of the people that loved him. The Lord has called him home - but he will be remembered always for who he was. A wonderful man.

May the Lord give you the strength to get through this trying time you are all in my prayers. Stay strong- think of the good times you shared and spent together. For the memories will be life lasting and will never die. You meet many people on the road of life - but remember only a few of the people that made an impact on your life. Mr. Stein -he was one of those people that I will never forget.

Love,

“ Jerry changed my life. He gave me purpose, direction, and an understanding of the faith we shared. His brilliance, warmth, and toughness under adverse conditions showed me that personal standards that combine individual principals with a deep and strong belief will serve you well as you pursue life's path. To Louise and Jerry's entire family, Mary Ellen and I thank you for sharing this great man with us for all those years. He gave so much to so many. We are all better for having him help us to be better men and woman. It is a debt we can never repay. Mike and Mary Ellen Mervis
