

Anne Friedman

January 27, 1941 - January 11, 2024

Anne Friedman,
(nee Zeiger), Beloved wife, mother, sister, grammy and friend, passed away on January 11, 2024 after a long illness. She was 82.

Anne was known for her love of people and conversation and her beautiful smile. Her husband of 60 years, Dr. Burton Friedman, noted “she was everybody’s friend. Anne could walk around the block and not come back for an hour because she would talk with everybody she met.”

Born in Milwaukee and raised in Waukesha, Wisconsin, Anne was the devoted daughter of the late Simon Zeiger and the late Rose Zeiger (nee Eckstein); and the caring sister of the late Harry Zeiger, Joan Zeiger and Michael Zeiger.

She married Dr. Burton Friedman in 1963 and together raised three daughters: Shari (Brad) Dorfman, Ellen (David) Siminoff, and Marci (Javier) Bleichmar.

Anne obtained an RN degree from Mount Sinai Hospital Nursing School in Milwaukee, a BS in Psychology from Cardinal Stritch College in Milwaukee and a Masters of Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and enjoyed a career in that field for many years.

Family was her greatest love and she greatly enjoyed the time she spent with her grandchildren Sophie, Benjamin, Jack, Caroline and Olivia.

She also played tennis, golf and bridge, more for the opportunity to socialize than for the games themselves.

“The important thing for her was people,” Dr. Friedman said. “She enjoyed family, friends and any opportunity to be social.”

Anne exuded affection, a kind nature, a generous smile, and was entirely welcoming to me and my family. Anne spoke proudly of her daughters and her grandchildren's accomplishments and meaningful lives. The perfect hostess, wife, mom, sister, friend and aunt. My sincere condolences to Uncle Burton, Shari and Brad, Marci and Javier, Ellen and David, Sophie, Benjamin, Jack, Caroline, Olivia, Joan and Michael. – Carol Posnick
