“ Our condolences to Army's family. We have fond memories of get togethers at Beaver Lake.

“ I don't remember the year I met AJ, just remember what a great evening it was. He and Becca joined us for dinner at Mader's German restaurant in Milwaukee. Hesther and Becca spent the evening talking and laughing, such fun to see them together. AJ and I sat together at the end of the table getting acquainted. We had such a grand time; discovered that he was almost exactly 3 months older than me. He was such a delight to be with; laughing and chatting with us. I can see his joyful ways in Becca; what a gift he has left her; a true blessing. Marylyn Bowman (proudly known to Becca as her 'Other Mother'

“ When I became friends with Rebecca, Armin was an immediate second Dad. He sent me birthday cards, Christmas cards and even Easter cards not missing a one, not even this year. He was kind and so funny and above all full of love for his daughter and by extension me. So many good memories it's hard to choose. I will always hold Armin in my heart.
