

Betty Rottman

March 26, 1924 - July 28, 2018

Betty, a force of nature, passed away on July 28, 2018 at the age of 94. She was a passionate teacher, truly shaping and inspiring the lives of her special education students at John Marshall, Shorewood High School and Nicolet during the career she loved. She was also a great mother, by example and through her own particular hands-on, brilliant style of parenthood. Betty is survived by her children (who much appreciate that upbringing!), Mark, Dale (Colleen), and Linda (Doug); four grandchildren, Carey (Jess), Matt, Sara and Rebecca; two great-grandchildren, beautiful Brody and lovely Lily. Betty loved and was much loved by her parents, Joe and Katie Romanik (deceased), her husband Al (himself a great guy who is also deceased), Lenny and their brother Dave (deceased), her sister-in-law Gerri, her family, her students, and a multitude of lifelong friends.
