“ *Chuck hired me on in a time of need with no hesitation. Never heard a harsh word from the man all the years at Numero Uno. The best musical boss I have known, and one of the nicest persons..We'll all miss his smile at the player piano..

“ Whenever I think of Chuck, a smile comes to my face. I worked for him and Lila for 11 years at Numero Unos. He was a wonderful, kind, and generous man. I can't hear a Frank Sinatra song and not picture him singing "My Way" with the player piano. Many of us worked many years at Unos because of the wonderful atmosphere, friendships, and great leadership from Chuck. On a personal note, his generosity and giving me the time needed helped me succeed in getting my college education. I will always be grateful to him, and now as always keep him in my heart! Heartfelt prayers to Lila and the family. Love, Teri Provencher
