

Charles Frank Winter,

May 11, 1923 - June 8, 2016

Winter, Dr. Charles Frank "Chuck"

Age 93, of Marco Island, FL, formerly of Fox Point and Mequon. Loving husband of Bernalee "Bunny" Winter (nee Paschen). Cherished father of Michael S (Sylvia) Winter, Jeffrey S (Sally Jo) Winter, Bruce K (Susan) Winter, Richard B (Jaclyn) Winter, and Daniel J (Julie) Winter. Adoring grandfather of David; Joshua, Sharon (Adam) Cooper; Jeremy, Andrea (Robert) Kitsis; Ariel, Eli; Abigail, and Jonah. Dear great-grandfather of Tehilla, Yaakov, Shlomo, Miriam, Shoshana, and Asher. Further survived by other relatives and friends.

Chuck, a retired Dentist, was so proud of his entire family that, as he put it, he helped create. He always said and all agreed how smart he was to pick out the love of his life, his cherished Bunny. He loved to travel and enjoyed playing golf, tennis, ping pong and chess. He adored being with all family members and celebrating with them. He will be cherished and remembered as a loving, caring, husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He has been a great role model for everyone.

“ I send my condolences to Bunny, Jeff and all of Cousin Chuck's family. My dad has fond memories of Chuck when they were kids and I am glad I got to know Chuck by seeing him at family occasions and visiting him and Bunny in Mequon. My dad is in assisted care in Chicago right now but he sends his love and sympathy to you all!

“ Charles ANA Chuck, was a kind and gentle soul. He had a positive "chair side" manner (especially for us nervous patients). Our heartfelt condolences to the Winter clan.

From your EX cousin, Ron. (And Nikki) Levin

I have fond memories of some Sunday family dinners in West Allis with Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Morrie. I recall Chuck and Bunny being there--courting at the time. Chuck was always ready with his different sense of humor.

We don't get out much now--Evelyn had a stroke a year and a half ago and suffers from 35 yrs of RA.

Our sympathies to you, Bunny, and to your family.
