“ *Dear Debbie, Julie, and Steve,
What a beautiful and moving tribute to your mother! Your words eloquently captured what a wonderful and accomplished person she was. As I shut my eyes and think about my Aunt Charlotte I can still hear her addressing me as "Richie". I was still "Little Richie" to her, even as I reached 70. Even during these last few years in her long talks, primarily with Bobbi, she always was more concerned about Bobbi's health than about her own, and she would always talk about Marty, her children, and grandchildren in glowing terms, and was kind enough to be our go-to source for extended family news. She will be missed. Her memory IS a blessing!*

Love,

“ My Auntie Charlotte was like a 2nd mother to me....my childhood was full of wonderful times with Marty and Charlotte and the kids. She was smart and capable and could handle anything in those days. I was always welcomed in to their home and it gave me such a feeling of safety to have Marty and Charlotte in my life. They came with Rae and Bob and my parents to Israel when I was there in 1971 and we had a wonderful time! There were hard times too and I am sorry that her life took such a difficult turn. Even so, these last years and times together have been precious to me. I felt so honored when she introduced me to all of her friends at Sarah Chudnov and our time together there was very special to me. I loved her very much and will always miss her. May her memory be for a blessing.

“ Dear Deb, Julie, Steve, Marvin, Judy and the rest of my Edelstein clan,

I am sad for all of us and comforted to know that Charlotte has now found peace. We now hold her in the memories of our heart. To me, she remains the stunning smile and vibrant energy of my childhood when I needed a comforting presence. I treasure that I came to know her and Marty as adults in their visits to Arizona. They welcomed me and Bill into their lives with Raymond and Mary and I observed their profound love for each other and their playfulness. I learned from Mary and Charlotte the deep abiding love of sisters and siblings who weathered good times and bad and never gave up on supporting each other. I treasure that lesson and bring it to my own life. This wisdom has passed to the next generation.

Know that Bill and I are with you in spirit and send our condolences, encircling you with a hug from afar.
