

Claire Deanne Fabric

April 13, 1943 - October 25, 2020

Claire Deanne Fabric,

Passed away peacefully at age 77 on October 25, 2020 having spent her last precious few days surrounded by her beloved family. Born April 13, 1943 she spent her entire life as a true caring and giving person loved by so many.

Preceded in death by her parents Max and Pearl Fishman. Survived by her adoring husband Kenneth and their 4 children: Stephie (Gregg) Falberg, Darren (Toni) Fabric, Jason (Sylvia) Fabric, and Andrea (David) Florsheim, as well as their 11 grandchildren: Zachary, Sara and Julia Falberg, Karli, Sami and Jessi Fabric, Jacob, Mikey, and Claudia Florsheim, as well as Sydney and Jackson Fabric. Also survived by her brother Joel (Sylvia) Fishman, and many of her dear friends and relatives.

Claire earned a BA degree in social work when she began her lifelong passion in helping everyone, and anyone who needed it. After the kids were grown, she enjoyed many years as a docent at the Milwaukee Art Museum, and also the Jewish Museum of Milwaukee teaching young children about her loves-art and Jewish history. She only saw good in humanity and will be missed forever. A special thanks to Dr. Ehab Atallah and staff at Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin for their compassionate care. Contributions to the Claire Fabric Food Pantry Fund at Congregation Shalom: 7630 N Santa Monica Blvd. Milwaukee, WI, 53217 appreciated.

“ My deepest and most sincere condolences. What a lovely woman who never had anything but a smile on her face dazzling eyes and was quick to learn to helping hand. She was the one who always made you feel better whenever you saw her with her she shared a passing memory of something you had in common or joyful event that she reminisced. She always just knew how to touch your heart. She will forever be missed but never forgotten.

“ Claire had a beautiful glow around her, as she was lit from within..
We saw the light, the sparkle, the positive attitude since high school, and
It never faded...
A consistently kind and caring woman, who knew how to be a thoughtful and generous friend...
Funny, honest..
I will miss her mat next to mine at yoga, our book trading,
And our spiritual explorations...

We always knew that Claire was a gift to her family,
And all who knew her
She created a circle of love..and will always be so loved...
Always

“ Claire was the shining center of Fabric Family lore. Her petite presence enveloped Ken, their children, their children's spouses and grandchildren with love and surrounded them with warmth, laughs and a lifetime of wonderful memories. Rest In Peace Claire Fabric. You will be missed. Love, Lois and Brian
