

Georgine Kesselman

May 5, 1950 - October 30, 2024

Georgine Lynn Kesselman,

(nee Hurloc) October 30, 2024, age 74.

Adored wife of John Kesselman, beloved mother of Beth Kesselman (Flynn Paquin) and cherished grandmother of Eleanor Paquin and Arthur Paquin. Georgine is also survived by brothers-in-law Howard Kesselman (Niki Gean) and Lee Kesselman, step-siblings Harris Slavick and Marjorie Frank, niece Lindsay Kesselman (Kevin Noe), nephew Robin Kesselman (Allegra Lilly), great-nephew Rowan Lees and other loved friends and relatives including Vicki Schultz (Tom Schultz) and Emily Ellsworth. She is predeceased by her parents Nellie and Constantine/George Hurloc and her brothers John Hurloc and Richard Hurloc.

Born in New York City, Georgine lived most of her life in Milwaukee, Wisconsin where she felt most at home. She and her husband of 42 years were inseparable and spent many hours together doting over their grandchildren, building their business and sharing their loves of rescuing dogs, hiking, traveling, and volunteering.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Wisconsin Humane Society or The Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation.

There will be a hybrid in-person/Live-stream memorial service held at Congregation Shalom on December 9th, 2024 at 11:30AM CST. Please see link details below.

“ Georgine was a lovely person. We met her through volunteering at the first Shalom Mitzvah Day, many years ago. We so enjoyed her company and admired her commitment to volunteerism. We are very sorry for your loss.
