“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'"- John 11:25

“ Dear Saba,

We always knew how proud you were of your Israeli grandchildren. We always knew how important the Jewish State, the holy state was to you.

But , we think that we never told you how proud we were of you, and how loved we felt here across the ocean.

What a bright light you were in our lives. You were a man of integrity who infused great meaning into whatever we did, whether it be big or small.

Our conversations always led us to understand the hidden meaning of things. We understood how we were part of the greater picture. You told us if we did not know our past we would not know our future. We always knew. We are part of a legacy, a part of the dream.

Today, in great sorrow we saying goodbye.

At our Seder table there are three missing and these three places will always remain empty, but your memory will always remain with us.and your light we promise we will pass on to your great grandchildren and the coming generations.

Today we are saying goodbye and you will be gathered up to your ancestors. Know that your love will always remain with us and strengthen us.

Your grandchildren, Segalle, Liat, Naomi and Aynav
