“ So many memories of Dr. and Mrs. Tuchman. They both were so supportive when my parents died. I will never forget their kindness during those awful days. But my favorite memories are of the Bucks games. My dad used to take me often, and I would want to sit next to either Dr. or Mrs Tuchman because I always had so much fun when they were there. Dr. Tuchman had such creative comments about the officials, and Mrs. Tuchman would knit. Because of her, I took up knitting, again. My heart is aching right now. Shila said it so beautifully at her mom's funeral when she spoke about being both "so sad, and so mad." I hope I quoted that correctly, but the meaning is the same. I miss them.
