

Howard A. Pollack

October 17, 1946 - December 25, 2023

Howard A. Pollack

A dear, kind, loving person died on Christmas day. Howard Allan Pollack was 77 years old. He lost his life to cancer as a result of military duty in Vietnam. He leaves behind his wife, Carole, his daughter, Lauren Simmons (Berkley) and son, the late, Justin Gendlin (Michelle). He will be missed by his five grandchildren, Morgan Simmons, Sydney Simmons, Avery Simmons, Robert Gendlin, and Ashley Gendlin. Also survived by his brother Laurence (Lynn) Pollack.

Howie was a brilliant, dedicated attorney, partner first with Charne - Glassner, and later with Godfrey - Kahn. He was a corporate litigator who thrived on challenging cases. He was very proud of his involvement in the desegregation of Milwaukee Public schools. He was a past president of the Seventh Circuit Bar Association and an avid tennis player, reader, PBS viewer and loyal Badgers fan. GO BADGERS!
