

James Stillman

July 1, 1947 - September 26, 2023

James "Jim" Sanford Stillman lived a very full life (7/1/1947 - 9/26/2023). He is survived by his loving family, wife and partner of 44 years Nancy Stillman; children Amy (Jud) Snyder, Kimberly Stillman, Rebecca Stillman, and Ariana (Radek) Dabrowski; his grandchildren Marisa, Jack and Haley Anderson, Mia and Joshua Holl, and Caroline, Jackson, Sam, Emma, and Will Snyder; his brother Richard (Nikki) Stillman, sister Patti (the late Robert) Wehr, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. He is also survived by his many friends, synagogue family, chorales and choirs.

Jim lived in Wisconsin for his entire life; after graduating from Whitnall High School, he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Education from UW-Lacrosse and went on to achieve a Master's Degree in Education. He taught at Cedarburg High School for 32 years where he proudly coached soccer and wrestling. After graduating college, Jim moved to the suburbs of Milwaukee where all of his children were raised. Jim's years were marked by his love of his family, his garden, Kopps chocolate malts, and music, including his band A Western Edge. May his memory be a blessing.

“ Richard and I had been living in Alaska and had recently moved to Wisconsin. We were visiting Jim's parents in Hales Corners when he came for a visit with toddlers Becca and Ari. It was my first Fall in Wisconsin and the leaves covered the lawn. I began raking them into a pile intending for the grandkids to be able to jump onto it. We had two grandsons with us, Anthony and Alexander who were about the same age as Jim's younger girls. Jim joined in and we accumulated what seemed to me a huge pile. The kids started jumping with shrieks of delight and laughter (ours as well as the kids'). Of course, the leaves again lay scattered across the lawn. So, true to Jim's need for order, we raked the leaves up again and put them in leaf bags for town pickup.-- Nikki Stillman, sister-in-law
