

Jaye Joseph

July 3, 1940 - June 16, 2026

Jaye Joseph,

June 16, 2026, age 85, of Mequon. Loving wife of Mike Joseph. Dear mother of Barrie (Rob) Henken and Steve (Liane) Joseph. Adoring grandmother of Danny (Rachael) Henken and Ben Henken; Rachel (Jarrett) Joseph-Milner and David Joseph. Treasured great-grandmother of Rozzie, Mickey, and Elsie. Preceded in death by her parents Sol and Lee Singer. Further survived by other relatives and friends.

As a child, Jaye had a wonderful relationship with her grandmother, which left Jaye with the feeling that when she got older, she wanted to do things that would benefit the elderly, and she did that. She decided to get involved in the activities of the Jewish Home and Care Center of Milwaukee and spent a great deal of time working with the elderly. It gave Jaye a great deal of pleasure and she devoted about 30 years to these activities. At the same time, Jaye got involved in the women's auxiliary at the Jewish Home and participated in raising money to help with the activities she participated in with the residents. Along the way Jaye was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Jewish Home and was also elected president of the women's auxiliary on two different occasions. Jaye also became close with Marty Stein, who was also very involved in the Jewish Home and Care Center, and together they worked to help improve the quality of life for the residents.
