

Jennie Eskin

January 4, 2017

Jennie Eskin (nee Basofsky) of Bayside, remembered as a truly devoted mother and loving wife, daughter and sister, died January 4, 2017. Her beloved husband Allen and brother Israel predeceased her.

Jennie grew up in Canada and came to the United States when she married Allen. She had a glorious voice and loved to sing and play the piano. She belonged to Temple Menorah for many years. She is survived by her sons Henry (Alix) and Steven (Sydney). Her sons were everything to her and they, in return, adored her, cared for her and made her life so very special and full. Their unconditional love for their mother, their constant and devoted care for her, bonded a most magnificent and remarkable relationship and enduring friendship the beauty of which will endure.

Memorial contributions may be made to Temple Menorah, 9363 N. 76th Street, Milwaukee, WI 53223 or to The Shul Center, 8825 N. Lake Drive, Bayside, WI 53217.

Burial was at Mound Zion Cemetery, Brookfield, WI, on January 6 with Blane Goodman Funeral Service and Rabbi Avremi Schapiro officiating.
