If this is the Koert I'm thinking of, he took care of me for many years at EVS. He was as well respected by the management of the dealership as he was by its customers. He always greeted me with a smile and said "I'll let you know if we find anything." Then he discussed what, if anything they found and NEVER tried to sell me any services I didn't need. I also knew him to be a good and loyal friend- even to those who were down on their luck. His was a life well lived.
