Kristin Page-Chartrand,

Passed away on September 5, 2024. Kristin was born in Cedar Rapids Iowa on June 7th, 1974. Kristin, along with her brother, Joel Page were raised in Falmouth, Massachusetts by her wonderful parents Allan and Janice Page. In 2002 Kristin married Doug Chartrand and became the mother to three amazing children: Nate, Anna, and Mea.

Kristin loved gardening, baking, and most importantly spending time with family and friends. She began her professional career as a high school science teacher and moved on to become a pediatric physician and researcher. Kristin's fields of medicine included both hematology and oncology. Kristin found joy in pursuing advancements in cancer research and even more comfort taking care of families during their difficult journey.

Kristin had numerous roles in her amazing life. The role that she cherished the most was that of "mom". Spending time with her three children Nate, Anna, and Mea was her life's passion. They filled her with infinite joy, laughter, and pride.

“ The Perry family is so saddened to hear of Kristin's passing. I met Kristin on the soccer sidelines where my son and my daughter played alongside Nate and Mea. She was so warm and friendly. I loved connecting with her and she was always so proud of her children and their accomplishments. She was bright, wicked smart and a lovely human being. My deepest sympathy to the entire family. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Connie, Marcus, Owen and Isabelle Perry

“ It is still so incredibly hard to believe that Kristen's bright light is gone. She was such a special person- always positive, always smiling, and always laughing. From our days at Falmouth High School to the many days having her hang out on River Road with the McKay clan, she was a true gem. She will be so missed!
