“ I think it amazing that by chance I should see this notice. I never knew Mel but sure remember Shelly. I found her obituary notice some years ago again much by chance. I was Shelly's OT working at St. Joe's when she lost the use of her hand what? 35 years ago. What an amazing, beautiful, confident, caring and sweet person. I heard about the children, the catering business and her life in general. I struggled to fabricate a splint for her hand. (Probably my first as a new therapist. Not skilled and very frustrate.) I remember she found me crying after working on it for almost 2 hours. She hugged me making me feel better in the process. She would come in every now and then to visit. I felt bad that her hand never fully recovered. I will never forget one time she stoped down for a visit. She had come to a family gathering to celebrate a briss that eas to take place on the top floor called 7th Haven. She was dressed to the 9's! Lovely purple dress, matching shoes, handbag and gloves. She was the most beautiful woman I had ever seen. It and she is a memory I still cherish. I'll bet Mel was in love with her the moment they met. I will remember her always!
