

Miriam "Mimi" Habush

March 17, 1938 - February 27, 2023

Miriam "Mimi" Habush

Passed away on February 27, 2023, at home in the company of her loving family, and is survived by her devoted husband of over 65 years, Robert, her children Jodi Habush Sinykin (Daniel Sinykin) and Sherri Habush, sister Sheila Lucks, and grandchildren, Sam, Elliana, Zachary and Justin Sinykin and Elizabeth Habush. She was the beloved daughter of Esther and Hyman Friedman, and a cherished friend to many.

Mimi will be remembered, forever and always, for her kind and loving ways. She truly radiated beauty inside and out. She viewed the world through compassionate eyes, with heartfelt empathy for the hardships of others and a lifelong soft spot for all animals, particularly dogs. After her first-born daughter Sherri suffered brain damage as an infant, Mimi never relented in her determination to give her a life filled with as many opportunities for joy and independence as possible. Through her persistence and advocacy, Mimi paved the way for other parents with special needs children, helping them to go to school, attend summer camp, and experience Special Olympics. Mimi loved being around people and staying active. She especially enjoyed taking long walks with her daughter and their beloved dogs, special times with her husband, and "date days" with her grandchildren. While active in philanthropy throughout her life, Mimi was, above all, an extraordinarily loving wife, mother and nana. The family wishes to extend heartfelt thanks to Maria

Olmos for her many years of devoted care and kindness.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Mimi's passing. Although we hadn't seen her in years she remains a wonderful person in our family memories. When I was a child Mimi was always the slightly older cousin who was beautiful, smart, funny and athletic...the perfect model cousin. And it was clear from the eulogies at her funeral that she remained that fabulous person her whole life. We send our warmest condolences to all of you....Renee (Cohen) and Jeff Epstein

“ My sadness and condolences to the whole family. Not only was she a devoted and loving family member, she was a devoted and loyal friend. We logged many miles together on Lake Drive, walking the dogs and talking about everything in our lives. We shared feelings, wishes, laughs and even gossip! Her insight was always “spot on”. She always knew the right thing to say and made all feel special. Her magnetic personality drew everyone to her. I’m proud to have called her my friend!
