“ Late, but never too late I do hope, I send my deepest sympathy to the parents of Nathan. I and my late wife, Rachel, we knew his father Jonah when he was still a little boy and I do have very lively souvenir of him as I have of his parents Herb and Ruth and his brother Amos. It was long, long ago and always so close too. Andre Vielwahr

“ Nathan Orlofsky used to go apeshit at lunch recess during our middle school days. He would throw fits, as well as rocks and stones, at fellow students. You DID NOT want to cross him on such days. Wherever he is, heaven or otherwise, I'm certain he's throwing stuff @ people n bucking around like a mentally ill horse. Rock on, sir.

“ Dear Jonah and Joan,

My heart goes out to both of you at this difficult time. Words cannot express the depth of grief and sympathy I have for you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and will remain so as you walk this very slow path to healing. Nathan will always be in your hearts and minds and memories. Treasure them and I hope they bring you some comfort in the days and weeks to come.

With much sympathy,

Chery Quinn
