

Perry I. Dinkin

March 3, 1936 - July 1, 2015

Dinkin, Perry I.

A businessman, community leader and proud brother, father and grandfather died in Danville, California on July 1, 2015 at the age of 79. Perry was the President of Deshur-Dinkin Homes, Co., a prominent builder of single family homes, multi-family units and commercial properties in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. As a community leader, Perry was involved in many causes, predominantly Jewish based charities and organizations. He served as President of the Milwaukee Jewish Community Center and Camp JCC, as well as served on the following Board of Directors: Mount Sinai Hospital, Congregation Shalom and Brynwood Country Club. Perry loved spending time with countless friends; he had a wonderful sense of humor and zest for life. Perry treasured his family including his brother Burt Dinkin and sister Elaine Friedman. He was married to Bobbi Dinkin for 33 years and raised three children, Jeffrey Dinkin (Marcie Dinkin), Debra Feldman (Gene Feldman) and Steven Dinkin (Tara Fuad) and had nine grandchildren. Perry was presently married to his wife Maria and had three step-sons Kosta Xigacos (Laura), Adoni Poledicha (Holly) and Raico Poledicha (Regina). Private burial. In lieu of flowers the family requests a donation in Perry's honor to the Ruetlinger Center for Jewish Living, 2600 Camino Tassajara, Danville, CA 94506 or the Albert and Ann Deshur JCC Rainbow Day Camp, 6255 N. Santa Monica Blvd. Milwaukee, WI 53217.
