

Richard Alan Victor,

June 4, 1944 - August 30, 2015

Victor, Richard Alan "Dick"

Passed away surrounded by family on August 30, at the age of 71, of Fox Point. Beloved husband to Beth Randy Goodman, loving father to Sarah (Michael Murphy) Victor and Jacob Victor, step-father to Lisa (David) Small, grandfather to Morgan, Jack, Hannah, and Nick Small, and brother to Roberta (Jon) Farris. Preceded in death by his father, Nathan Victor, and his mother, Edythe Victor (nee Miller).

Dick graduated from the University of Wisconsin- Madison with degrees in economics (BS) and law (JD). In his youth, he was an avid amateur photographer, and served on the Daily Cardinal staff at Madison in this capacity. Later in life, he became an active ham radio operator (WD9GRI), a hobby he pursued passionately for decades. He also excelled in and enjoyed his work, serving as an Assistant Attorney General for the state of Wisconsin for over 35 years. In his retirement, Dick remained dedicated to his many hobbies, which typically involved copious reading, collecting, and tinkering. In spite of health problems later in life, Dick continued pursuing his varied interests and kept in touch with his loving family and friends. He will be very deeply missed.

Private services were held in Dick's honor.
