Known for her big heart and bright smile, Rosalie was loving, smart, charismatic, and kind. She had a magnetic personality and was the life of every party. Above all else, she was fiercely devoted to her family.

Rosalie was a pillar of the Wisconsin community for decades. She is survived by her daughters, Nancy, Lori, and Cindy, her sons-in-law, Ernie Grunfeld and Steve Marker, her grandchildren, Rebecca (Ryan), Daniel (Samantha), Adam, and Ruby, her great-grandchildren, Ben, Sophie, Romy, Solomon, and Jonah, and her many nieces and nephews. She will remain in the hearts of her wonderful caretakers, to whom the family is forever grateful, and her closest companion, Connie, whom she loved dearly.

Rosalie and Jerry were generous and dedicated philanthropists. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a memorial contribution in Rosalie's memory to the Children's Wisconsin Foundation c/o the Kahn Endowment Fund in Rehabilitative Services.

“ My heart goes out to the Entire family on the passing of Rosalie, a remarkable woman. My twin sister and I would take Nancy out for walks in her stroller when she was very young, and we always loved visiting with the family. Memories I will never forget. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.
