

Sandra G Zetley

May 28, 1928 - November 12, 2013

Zetley, Sandra G.

(Nee Blumenthal) of Bayside died peacefully at home on Tuesday, Nov. 12, 2013. She was 85.

She was born prematurely (weighing 2 pounds 13 ounces) on May 28th, 1928 to Louis W. and Clara E. Blumenthal. Graduating in 1946 from Washington High School and 1950 from Marquette University, she majored in speech pathology. She married her long-time boyfriend Carl S. Zetley in 1949, with whom she celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary in 1999. She worked as a speech pathologist, a docent at the Milwaukee Art Museum, and served as the regional president of Hadassah. She was a longtime member of Congregation Beth Israel after being raised in Beth El Ner Tamid Synagogue.

In addition to her professional responsibilities, spending time with her family was paramount. She celebrated Shabbat dinners every Friday night, and she wrote poems to celebrate the accomplishments of all of her children and grandchildren. Sandra was an active member of the Jewish community and cherished friend of many.

Sandy was preceded in death by her beloved husband Carl, brother Sheldon Blumenthal and son-in-law Steven Korobkin. She is survived by her daughters Faye Korobkin and Linda (Randall Rowlett) Zetley; son Craig (Lisa) Zetley; brother-in-law Marvin (Marilyn) Zetley; sister-in-law Jan Blumenthal; grandchildren Caren, Bryan, and Marc (Jeremy Needham) Korobkin; Nathan, Isaac (Sarah Colacino), Zev, and Noah Rowlett; Mikaela, Aaron, and David Zetley; and great-grandchild Onica Korobkin. The family would like to extend special thanks to Dr. Baugrud, Dr. Carneol and Cora Cristobal.
