“ I'll always remember how he rode that old bike around with that one helmet and the reflective tape around his right ankle.

“ My name is Elizabeth. I'm Scott's first cousin (his aunt Emily's oldest daughter). We only saw each other a few times, mostly as children.

He was a sweet person to me and I'm sad his life passed with so little fanfare. I'm grateful to those who took the time to note his passing and to say kind words about him.

“ You have our deepest sympathy for the passing away of our Dear Friend Scott. So Many Memories. (the stuffed dogs)
I will always cherish our biblical talks, him and Anita attending Shawn' s Graduation, his wedding at Madison and visits at our home in Wausau and Milwaukee.
May God Bless you and your family during his Memorial and always cherish the Happy Years you had with your Dear Brother Scott.
May his soul be with his wonderful parents, Aaron and Anita Tilton.

“ So sorry to hear about Scott passing away. I knew Scott all my life and growing up have many fond memories of the Tilton family. Scott was a wonderful friend to my father in his old age and visited him regularly, which I very much appreciated. He was fiercely independent to the end.

Judy and I are in Arizona so unfortunately will be unable to attend the funeral. May his memory be a blessing.

“ I first met Scott, when he was a volunteer in a medical study. We saw each other on a regular basis, and developed a friendly relationship. After the study was concluded, we again met, thanks to Scott, and it turned out that we lived quite close to each other. Scott would ride his bike or drive his Model A to my house, and we would often sit down and carry on a conversation. Later, I started to drive to Scott's house, and we would walk in the neighborhood. This led to occasionally going out for lunch. We actually had talked about a lunch date, prior to his last hospitalization.

I always enjoyed the time I spent with Scott. He was an engaging, friendly, interesting person. I am going to miss getting together with him.

Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend his funeral, since I will be out of town this week. I do want to wish family members my sincerest condolences. Scott was a fine person and a good friend.
