“ I have too many memories to mention! It would be a book. We were friends from 12 years old when her family moved two blocks north of us. We walked to school and home together every day. We went to the Sherman theater every Friday night. Would try to walk in backwards so the thought we were leaving but it never worked 🤪👩 what were we thinking and paid our 12 cents! We played at Sherman park in summer and winter. On swings, and ice skates etc. and on to boyfriends college marriage etc. love you dear friend ❤️ ☐

*My condolences to the Hikens. I may not be familiar to you, but I grew up with the Lebow's on 46th Street, was a counsleor at Timberlane, and shared many years with her family before leaving Milwaukee.. My thoughts are with all of the families.
