“ I met Shelley in Vail, Colorado in 1970 and I fell in love with her on first sight. She was a beautiful lady and my heart is broken. Rest In Peace.

“ My mother just sent me this funeral announcement. I am in the San Diego airport waiting for my plane to Milwaukee. I am crying. First Susie Halloway, then Debbie Waxman and now Shelley, three of my very first friends. My heart is broken. I can hardly believe this news. Condolences to Shelley's family, and to the rest of her broken-hearted friends.

Shelley had the biggest heart of anyone I have ever known. Her smile and laugh were contagious, and she made everyone around her feel special. It's hard to imagine a world without her.
