With heavy hearts and boundless love, we announce the passing of Susie Gruenberg on December 25, 2024, at the age of 70. Surrounded by her devoted husband, Bobbo, and cherished daughters, Zoe and Mia. Susie passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, unparalleled inner-strength, and an infectious joy that touched everyone she encountered.

Born Susan Gail Plotkin in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Susie was the daughter of Sidney and Lorraine Plotkin (née Krasno). She graduated from the University of Oregon and soon reunited with Robert “Bobbo” Gruenberg, the love of her life. They were married on December 30, 1979, and their love will forever be a rare and remarkable bond—deeply devoted, tenderly nurturing, and everlasting in its strength.

As a mother, Susie’s presence was a constant source of love, laughter, and support. She shaped her daughters' lives with gentle strength, humor, and a deep commitment to family. Susie was also devoted to serving others, dedicating her time to organizations like United Way, Jewish Family Services, and co-founding the Betty Brinn Children’s Museum of Milwaukee.

Known for her resilience and loyalty, Susie's warmth, generosity, and playful spirit touched everyone she met. She is survived by her beloved husband Bobbo, daughters Zoe (Tim Nolan) and Mia (Corey Glazer), grandsons Max (3) and Leo (2) Glazer, her brother Mark Plotkin and sister Nancy Randall. She was predeceased by her parents, Sidney and Lorraine Plotkin.

A celebration of Susie's life will be held at Congregation Sinai, 8223 N. Port Washington Rd., Fox Point, on December 26, 2024 at 11 AM. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Betty Brinn Children's Museum in Susie's memory.
