

Sylvia Kaufman

September 16, 1926 - July 18, 2019

Kaufman, Sylvia

(Nee Greenberg) July 18, 2019, age 92 years, of Shorewood. Beloved wife of Bernard Kaufman. Dear mother of Ellen (Ben) Mandelman, the late Gary (Jan) Kaufman, and Laurie (the late Gary) Schmidt. Loving grandmother of Joel Mandelman, Emily Mandelman; Aaron (Alexandria) Kaufman, Noah Kaufman, Anna (David) Springob, and Asher Kaufman; Brian (Christine) Schmidt and Steven Schmidt. Cherished great-grandmother of Julian and Vivian Schmidt; David Springob. Preceded in death by siblings Sol (Phyllis) Greenberg, Esther (Al) Toll, Irv (Reva) Greenberg, brothers and sisters in law Dave (Rose) Kaufman, Sam (Gertrude) Kaufman and Art Teplinsky. Further survived by sister-in-law Lily Teplinsky and many loving nieces and nephews.

Sylvia and Bernie had a beautiful marriage of 72 years. They were best friends and shared a work life at East Side Foods grocery store. They cherished their many friends. Sylvia was a skilled knitter, terrific Mahjong and Canasta player, and avid golfer (she had 3 holes-in-one; her husband had none). Her greatest joy was her family.

“ I remember always feeling welcomed by Aunt Sylvia's whenever we'd go to her house for Thanksgiving dessert. She always wanted us to make sure we had plenty to eat even after eating one piece of pie we should have more. I remember all the Hanukkah's we spent at Grandma's house. One Hanukah Aunt Sylvia bought me a muff. The best gift ever. The following Hanukkah she asked me what I wanted for Hanukkah and I said I wanted another muff. She laughed.
