

Sylvia Rudberg

June 22, 1920 - December 17, 2025

Sylvia Rudberg,

(nee Appelman) Age 105, died peacefully on December 17, 2025 at her home in Fox Point where she had lived for over 40 years. She was preceded in death by Jack, her husband of 64 years as well as her two brothers, Morris and Nathan. She is survived by her daughter, Nancy (Alvin) Jaffe, her sister Evelyn, grandchildren Rachel and David and great-grandchild Lyla.

Sylvia's passion was her family and friends who were always in her thoughts. She was known to those close to her as a master storyteller and a great conversationalist. She was born and raised in Milwaukee and lived in Orlando, Florida for two years when her husband was stationed there. Although she worked briefly selling women's hats, she was primarily a homemaker. She will be greatly missed and forever remembered.

Private services were held. In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Sylvia can be made to organizations involved with promoting or studying longevity.

Tribute Wall

SC

“ I just read the obituary today and I'm truly sorry to her of her passing. My name is Suzi Cherner and I was the manager of the Porticos from 2000-2012. Sylvia was a sweet lady, even throughout her difficulty with her vision, she always seemed to be very complimentary on my fashion, which amazed me. Apartment C 217 will never be the same! I also remember your Dad, he would come down with the rent check and always grabbed a piece of candy out of our bowl. Both were gems and I feel honored to have known them. May their memories be a blessing for you.

Suzi Cherner - December 27, 2025 at 05:41 PM