“ Thank you, Werner, for creating and maintaining a warm, welcoming and delicious sanctuary -- a veritable place of worship. Thank you also for the friendship you showed to my dad, Hal.

I hope that, wherever you are now, the corned beef, like you, is lean and wonderful.

“ I was your basic “nobody” at SHS in the mid ‘60’s, but I WAS lucky enough to have friends who worked for Benji during that time. I have so many good memories of a quiet man with a kind smile who made a place in a community that touched SO many lives in GOOD ways. Because I hung around with some of his employees, I was always welcomed by him as one of the “gang”. This was acceptance of the highest degree to one who really didn’t fit in much of anywhere else. Of course, I grew up and moved far away. But EVERY time I returned to visit family and friends in Milwaukee, Benji recognized me, FOR 40+ YEARS! In ALL of that time, I have never heard an unkind word uttered about him. For a humble and unassuming man, he made QUITE an impact.
God Bless You, Benji, wherever you are!

“ Will always remember the best food place in town. Grew up going to Benji’s and while we don’t live there anymore we come to Benji’s in Shorewood everytime we are in Milwaukee. The memories flow through my veins and the blintzes, corned beef and everything else is always “perfect”. Love you Benji and thanks for the many years of great food and friendship. Keep looking down on us and enjoy your heavenly home. “Hope they have great corned beef sandwiches for you.” Cheryl Eskridge (Conover, WI)

“ We have many wonderful memories of both Benji and Benji's spanning more than 30 years. Benji was always Mr. Hospitality. We can picture him now, going from table to table with a coffee pot in his hand or with a plate of corned beef samples for diners.

Like so many other "regulars" who made up his following, we were lucky enough become friends. We welcomed him and Karen into our home for parties, and it was like having a celebrity in attendance. Within the last few years we often joined him at the deli if he called to let us know he'd be there. He always had interesting stories to tell.

Benji had a kind and generous spirit which was always on display The world was surely a better place with him in it. There's no doubt he will be missed by so many. But he will always be in our hearts and minds.

Sincerely, the Stroms

“ My heart goes out to Debbie. Your dad was such a nice man. He had the biggest smile and a twinkle in his eye. He would always slip in my carryout bag cookies, bakery what ever he could fit in it. My late mother was fond of him too. There was a whole group of breakfasts regulars who would go in every morning and stop through you dad's place throughout the day, just to kibitz. He was a good soul and he was already missed by many of us when he sold the restaurant, I missed seeing him sitting in his chair taking a quick nap. Or, when he would wear his glasses on the top of his head and they would fall on his nose, a special trick he mastered. He will be missed now even more. May G-D comfort you and the rest of your family during this difficult time.

“ Debbie, so sorry to hear about your dad's passing. I was a member of the early morning group that met before work for over 30 years at the restaurant, he was one of a kind and a true gentleman. Our deepest sympathy, Don & Shirley Wickersheimer

“ 40 plus of years of knowing him. He was my boss, but also a wonderful caring, generous, humorous, humble man. A great father to Debbie and an amazing friend to those whom were luck enough to call him that. His presence will be missed forever. 💕💕💕💕💕

“ We and our children have so many memories of Benji One is when our daughter Karen would fly back home to Colorado she would go to get two pounds of corned beef for her husband to take back. Benji wouldn't let her go without giving her a corned beef sandwich to eat! And he was always so much fun to talk to. We'll miss you Benji! You're part of Milwaukee history! ❤️🌈
